Dear Peter

I have to say that I am full of admiration for the way in which the Great North Wedding & Home Show was organised by you and your staff. This show was smooth from the start to the finish. The flow of visitors was constant and business was brisk. To actually book four weddings at a show is unusual to say the least – but that was my pleasant experience. This show is a must for all wedding and home item exhibitors – especially as the level of organisation and marketing far exceeds anything elsewhere.

I am eagerly looking forward to the next show!

Sincerely,

Ian Vickery LMPA
